Membership Hits 300 On Thermometer

Elated members of the Clement R. H. Post 139 ran a high fever as membership Chairman Tom Bressler pointed out the big Legion membership thermometer up past the three hundred mark last Saturday morning in ceremonies at the head of Main Street. Legionnaires taking part in the ceremonies were Lucien W. Kidd, Commander, Jim Bressler, Chairman of the Membership Committee, John Stultz, Mayor, B. F. Farrelly, Adjutant, and Vincent Lagrou, Henry O. Dancy, Cadie Heitzmann, Jim Pfeiffer and Gordon Romanoff.

"This tremendous advance in membership puts the local Post in line for another Award from the State Legion Department," Commander Kidd stated. "Let's Legionnaires also feel that they will receive cups for community service and for publicity as well," Kidd added.

NCCW Meets

Rev. Father James P. McGlade, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic Church, presided over the meeting with a prayer of the Bay St. Louis District of the National Council of Catholic Women.

The meeting was held at St. Joseph's School in Pass Christian on Wednesday, March 10, with Mrs. Pat Koonen, president, Mrs. Tracy, secretary and treasurer, and approximately twenty-five members in attendance.

After minutes of the previous meeting were read and financial reports from National and State presidents were read by Miss Jane Lutz. Reports of the various committees of the four units also were given.

Mrs. Mouffay spoke on the plans for the pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in New Orleans on March 25. The ladies are to meet in front of Our Lady of the Gulf Church at 10 a.m. as the chartered bus will leave at 10:30 a.m.

Letters of appreciation to the ladies for the many hours given in entering the veterans of the Gulfport VA Hospital through the National CCS in cooperation with the American Red Cross.

It was stated that on Tuesday, March 16, the ladies from along the Coast will make a pilgrimage to Our Lady of the Gulf Church for a special service at 3 p.m.

A excerpt from the Denver Catholic Register was read: "At the board of directors of the National Council of Catholic Women that met in Washington, D.C., President Dwight Eisenhower received the ladies in his office in the White House. The President congratulated the Council on its Girl Scouts are shown entering the A & Theatre to attend a free movie in honor of Girl Scout Week. Leaders are Mrs. George Kramer, Mrs. Denny Tonkel, Mrs. Rosalie Benigno and Mrs. Henry Helm.

LA. MARSHAL FOUND GUILTY Charge Assault And Battery

A Hancock County Jury yesterday found Willie Crawford, 60 year-old marshal of Pearl River, La. guilty of assault and battery. Plaintiff in the case was Joe T. Harris, 29, driver of a Dixie Express Van from Meridian, Harris, accused of speeding through Louisiana the night of Sept. 15, 1952 about 10 p.m. was chased by Crawford. After Harris crossed the State line into Mississippi Crawford allegedly continued his chase and apprehended Harris at Santa Rosa near the Y on the Picayune branch of Highway 11. Crawford contended he walked to the cab of the van, where he was struck in the face by Harris. Plaintiff denied such action. Two witnesses arriving on the scene in another Dixie van said Crawford hit Harris over the head and struck him on the face with a blackjack while he was still in the cab of the truck, and later continued to beat him about the head and face with the weapon when Harris had dismounted from the cab of the van.

Harris first was taken to a hospital in Picayune and later was hospitalized in Meridian. Photographs of Harris taken the day following the occurrence were brought as evidence by Boyce Hallman, District Attorney prosecuting for the State, and Robert Gentry, local attorney, special prosecutor for the plaintiff.

Judge Leslie Grant said in passing sentence that "only the age of the defendant" prevented his administering a "prison sentence." The judge imposed a fine of $500.

EASTER SEAL CAMPAIGN TO OPEN TODAY

The 1954 Easter Seal campaign will open in Mississippi and throughout the nation today, Dr. H. C. Ricks, president of the Mississippi Society for Crippled Children and Adults, stated today.

The appeal will continue through Easter Sunday, April 18.

"This 21st annual campaign for crippled children and adults is expected to be the most extensive campaign in the society's history. More than 200,000 sheets of Easter Seals will be mailed to residents throughout the state by 82 County Chapters of the Mississippi Society for Crippled Children and Adults," Dr. Ricks said.

The Seal for 1954 is designed in bright blue, white and yellow. It incorporates the white lily symbol of the Easter Seal Societies imposed in a yellow envelope which symbolizes use of Easter Seals.

The chairman emphasized that 91.7 per cent of all funds received from Easter Seal Contributions will remain right here in Mississippi to help its thousands of crippled citizens through medical care, treatment, physical training, recreation, vocational guidance and many other services.

Among major projects supported by the Mississippi Society for Crippled Children and Adults are:

Camping for crippled children both white and colored.

Scholarships for training of personnel to work with the handicapped.

Instruction and guidance for parents of handicapped children.

Services to homebound crippled adults in the production and sale of articles made in the home.

BAPTIST REVIVAL TO START HERE SUNDAY MORNING

CARROLL LOWE

A week of evangelist services will begin Sunday morning, the Rev. Schuyler M. Batson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, has announced. The services will be held each morning at 7 o'clock and every evening at 7:30. Weekday services will be held in addition to the Sunday services, continuing through Friday evening, March 26.

Evangelist for the week will be Dr. Chester L. Quarles of Jackson. Dr. Quarles is Executive Secretary of the Mississippi Baptist Convention. He is elected by members of the Baptist Churches of the state to serve the more than 1600 cooperating churches of the convention. Baptist in the Southern Baptist churches of Mississippi number close to 400,000.

Dr. Quarles is a native of the Gulf Coast, having been born in Gulfport and educated at Mississippi College and at Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville, Ky.

Carroll Lowe, music director of First Baptist Church, will conduct the music program for the week of services. Lowe is a student at the School of Sacred Music of the New Orleans Baptist Seminary.

Both the Sunday School and the Training Union are aiming for all-time high attendance Sunday. The Sunday School, 9:45 a.m., has set 234 as its goal and the Training Union, 6:15 p.m., is aiming for 110.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mothers Club Has Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of SJA Mothers Club was held Tuesday, Mar. 9 at the convent.

Reports from the Carnival Ball were given. Bills were not all so no account of proceeds was estimated.

Mother Anna Mary expressed gratitude on behalf of the faculty for the work done by the Mothers Club in sponsoring the ball.

Mrs. Lawrence Jacob reminded members of the Day of Recollection held by the Alumnae Sunday.

Plans for a White Elephant Sale were discussed. The sale will be held some time in April. Definite date will be announced later. Sister Leonard's third grade won the room count with the greatest number of mothers present.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Lillian Kidd and Mrs. Leroy Luke.

Good Neighbors Party

St. Patrick's Day theme was used in favors, decorations and refreshments. Handpainted shamrocks were presented each member present.

A new member, Mrs. Val Flannagan, formerly of New Orleans, was welcomed by the group.

The party was enjoyed by all present, and members are looking forward to the Easter Buffet Supper which will be held April 19 at Taylor School.

Mrs. Mimi Lux, Mrs. Stockwell and Mrs. Marguerite Backman were hostesses.

Others present were Mrs. Corinne Sick, Mrs. Louise Smith, Mrs. E. Haro, Mrs. Oscar Bragg Sr., Mrs. Harold Bragg, Mrs. S. Fayard, Mrs. J. Coward, Mrs. Courtney Coward, Mrs. Myrtle Christy, Mrs. Nellie Christy, Mrs. Anna January, Mrs. Christy Natto, Mrs. Gowan, Mrs. Chester Schultz and Mrs. Val Flannagan.

Little Theatre Opening Set For April 1, 2, 3

Open production of the current season of the Little Theatre will be presented April 1, 2, and 3. Philip Barry's hit comedy, "Holiday," will be the presentation.

A cast of new faces will add zest to the show. Some long established actors of the local theatre will be in the play, but the majority will be new to Bay St. Louis audiences.

Mrs. C. D. Blair is directing the show, and promises an evening of keen enjoyment for all who come to see this presentation.

MEMBERS FETE LEGION BIRTHDAY

Snacks were furnished by the Auxiliary for the party, while other refreshments were furnished by the Legion.

Members felt that the party and dance were a fine success, and many expressed a great reluctance to end the festivities.

St. Joseph's Day Observed Friday

Bay St. Louis and all other Catholic communities will honor St. Joseph's Day on Friday, March 19.

The local Convent has been granted a holiday in respect to their patron saint.

Festivities that have not been indulged in during the Lenten period will be enjoyed by those persons who otherwise abstain from mundane pleasures during the forty days of solemnity and repentance preceding the celebration of Easter. Dances will be given in Waveland and Bay St. Louis.

Altars are erected in many Italian homes honoring the patron saint of Italy. The St. Joseph Altars are famous for the amount of unusual food and delicacies with which they are laden. Italian households prepare many days in advance by the baking of special pastries and fancy fishes that are placed on the Altars and distributed to the many callers who visit the shrines.

A superstition is that bread baked for a St. Joseph Altar will bring good luck to those who partake of it. Another is the St. Joseph bean that is given to visitors to the shrines. A holder of such a bean is assured good fortune.

One of the renowned shrines of Bay St. Louis is erected each year by the Maurigi family. Hundreds of visitors call during the day to view the work and to eat the fine dishes prepared by the family. No callers are refused admission to the houses where such Altars are erected.

This break from the religious to worldly pleasures is welcomed as an oasis, where men relax and refresh themselves, then continue for the balance of the Lenten period to repent and pray forgiveness.

Mrs. Ella Glavan Dies in Biloxi

Mrs. Ella Mazaro Galvan, mother of Sister Joseph Frances, one-time faculty member of St. Joseph Academy, died Thursday March 11 at her home at 199 Oak St., Biloxi.

Funeral services were held from O'Keefe Funeral Home on Saturday, March 13 followed by requiem mass at St. Michael's Church. Interment was in Biloxi Cemetery.

The deceased also is survived by her husband, Marco Glavan; two other daughters, Miss Sylvia Glavan and Mrs. John Konish of Biloxi; two sons, Mark and Herbert Glavan of Biloxi, sisters and brothers and five grandchildren.

Waveland Pier Benefit Dance

A benefit dance will be given at the Top Hat in Waveland March 19 for the benefit of repairing and extending the public pier at Waveland.

Music for the dance will be furnished by Leland's Orchestra from New Orleans. Admission will be a $1.00 donation.

Close to five hundred persons registered at the Brigade Gardens Wednesday for the opening of the Bay Waveland day of the Coast Council of Garden Clubs Spring Pilgrimage. Moderate weather and sunny skies brought the largest number of out-of-town visitors recorded for this event. Visitors from practically every state in the Union were charmed with the gardens and hospitality of Bay St. Louis and Waveland. Opening at the Brigade home, where Mrs. Brigand was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Thomas Schafer, Mrs. Shirley Deblanc, Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab and Mrs. George Stevenson, pilgrims were served coffee and doughnuts and toured the beautiful oak shaded gardens that create an atmosphere of charm in this part of the country.

From the Brigade gardens the tour continued south along the beach front to the gardens of Mrs. Joseph Samuel on Nicholson Ave. Mrs. Samuel was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Anita Sokol of New Orleans and Waveland, Mrs. Selma Moss of New Orleans and Mrs. E. A. Jimison of New Orleans and Waveland.

Next stop was the Percival Stern gardens. Here the visitors were given pecan pralines as souvenirs by Mrs. Stern and the ladies receiving with her. They were Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Ray Freeman, Mrs. Michael Greenwald and Mrs. Gussie Berkson all of New Orleans.

Heading back toward Bay St. Louis, the tour stopped at the famous "Pirate House," which legend associates with Jean Lafitte. Here Mrs. B. H. Lister, and a group of friends received hundreds of visitors. The gracious and exquisite home, with its fabulous furnishings was inspected, with a history of the house given and many interesting sidelights on the personalities which legend has colored as its first inhabitants. The house was an indoor garden, with long stemmed American Beauty roses in every room.

Receiving with Mrs. Lister were Mrs. J. Reiman of Biloxi; Mrs. Cleve Himes, Gulfport; Mrs. Wm. McNeil, Lyman, and Mrs. Ben Morrison of New Orleans. The hostesses were dressed in colorful Ante-Bellum costumes.

Lunch was served to nearly three hundred persons at the Bay Waveland Yacht Club.

Mrs. E. E. Allgeyer was chairman of the luncheon. Working on her committee were Mrs. Herbert Rutenberg, Mrs. N. L. Carter, Mrs. Octave Dolph, Mrs. Walter Hays and Mrs. J. Walker Hill Jr. Mrs. H. A. Thompson was in charge of registrations, and Mrs. Bernard Farrelly and Mrs. W. W. Baltz were in charge of the door.

Mrs. Norman Renshaw was chairman of the serving committee. Assisting her were Mrs. Dick Messtayer Jr., Mrs. Rene deMontluzin Jr., Mrs. Robert Hamilton, Mrs. Bert Quigley, Mrs. Walter J. Phillips, Mrs. Ed Heath Jr., Mrs. Sam Whitfield and Mrs. Richard Shadoin.

Mrs. Gordon Gleim and Mrs. Frank Kiefer were dining room hostesses. Decorating committee chairman Mrs. Al Voight was assisted by Mrs. J. William Hill Jr., Mrs. L. T. Boyd, Mrs. Sue Newton.

The Yacht Club received admiration from all diners. White and green was used in carrying out St. Patrick's Day colors. White gladioli in full beautiful spikes rose amid trailing ivy in most artistic table decorations as well as banking on the mantle over the fireplace and on the piano. The women serving received favorable comments on the efficient and expeditious manner in which they served the tables, as well as for the attractive picture they presented in their dainty symmetrical green aprons. The lunch was a credit to those who worked so hard in the preparation.

From the Yacht Club the pilgrims wended their way to St. Augustine's Seminary where they strolled amid the beauties of nature enhanced a thousandfold by the work of the Brothers and Novitiate, and listened to the majestic voices of the organ in choral singing.

From this sanctuary the next stop was the Swoop home, where Mrs. Leo Seal was chairman of the interesting display of glass and china.

Since the home dated from a bygone era, the young ladies selected by Mrs. Seal to receive were costumes used by bells of the Old South preceding the Civil War. Adding color to the picture were Mose and Mammy, family retainers, whose presence to watch over their young mistresses and masters was a part of every Southern picture.

Graciously receiving the many visitors were Mrs. E. F. Fahy Jr., Mrs. H. H. Shattuck, Mrs. Paul Loup, Mrs. Dan Kussell and doll-like little Dale Russell. A minister was dined on a lawn of the home by girls of Bay High School. They were trained and accompanied by Mrs. Katherine Wilson, Mrs. Carl Smith and Mrs. J. E. Erwin.

Costumed in pastel colored satin period gowns, the dancers were Linda Ler Normand, Eugenia Giger, Geraldine Bilbo, Murdy Ann Favre, Gai. Banderet, Pearl Marie Pernicano, Barbara Heitzmann, Bernice Kergosien, Mary Godwin, Gloria Wheat, Cecil Ramund, Lynn Witter, Clara Kuy Miller, Grace Woods and Myrna Poolson.

A fitting finale to a glorious day was provided by Mrs. Walter Oex Jr. with a tea served in the gardens of her beautiful English type home. The garden was a mass of spring blooms, with numerous camellias and azaleas plants adding glorious coloring to the setting. Refreshments were served on the terrace surrounding the pool and in the summer house. Mrs. Gay was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Jos. R. Schaff, who was also cookie chairman, Mrs. H. A. Eldredge, Mrs. Erle Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Vic Leveau and Mrs. Robert Camores. Tea girls, fragile and lovely in party frocks, flitted about as they served the guests. They included Julie Dantagnan, Rusty Breath, Betty Sullivan, Ann Hubbard, Patsy Shadoin, Kinta Kergosien and Patsy Favre.

Mrs. Waldo Otis was general chairman of the Pilgrimage for the Bay Waveland Garden Club. Mrs. C. E. Ripple was publicity chairman, Mrs. Joseph Kern and Mrs. Charles Beyer placed the markers and Miss Betty Younger from the Lazy Y Stables created a sensation as dressed as a cowgirl and driving her buckboard, she showed visitors the trails to travel to reach their destinations.

MEMBER OF CONGRESS

Back in the country, increased security measures are being planned for the President, Congress and the Supreme Court. Both Houses of Congress have passed legislation to increase the security of the Capitol building. The Capitol police will be increased to 1,000 men. For many years the Capitol has been protected by a small force of police. Now, however, the law has been changed so that the members of Congress and the Supreme Court are protected by a small force of police. This system appears to be the best way to protect the Capitol.

There are many cards from Germany. The buildings are beautiful, with ancient structures, and magnificent monuments in cities and parks. Of course, this was many years before World War II.

From here on, my cards, ranging from comical to picturesque scenes, buildings, waterways, ships, animals, statues, monuments, and the like, organized group of malcontents and terrorists. Since under the present setup Puerto Ricans are virtually American citizens with thousands coming to New York, principally, and to other American cities without the necessity of even a passport, it is not hard to conceive of what a great asset this would be to Moscow.

This situation should serve as a warning to the advocates of statehood for Hawaii, the Virgin Islands and other outlying possessions as well as Puerto Rico.

It is indeed time for America to be alerted to the danger thus imposed.

YOUR HOBBY COLUMN

Hobby Consists Of Postcard Collection Dating Back Three Generations

BY IRIS KOERNER

My hobby is collecting postcards, a custom that has been in my family for three generations. My grandmother's, my mother's and my own. Among my favorite cards are those with yellow backgrounds.

Dear Lord, As Dad isn't home tonight I guess you'll have to keep awake. And see things are right. While I am fast asleep. But if you're busy and forget to tend to what I've said. And burglars come. You needn't fret. I'll shoot 'em full of lead. Amen.

In my mother's collection is a very comical card, which reads: "To This Little Town Of Bay St. Louis, Miss., There Surely Is Some Style."

Now to describe the card. The man stands like quite a dude, with a straw hat, with his ears sort of bent to hold the hat up. A very stiff collar, which seems to support his head. A lady strutting in dressed in a purple, slim high waisted dress, which makes her look like a purple string-bean. Her hat sits on the back of her head. A slim feather, draped from the back of the hat, reaches under her chin.

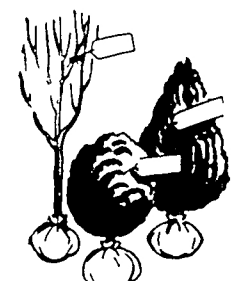

Besides the comical cards, there are many seasonal greeting cards, such as Easter, Birthday and Christmas, and the like. For many years Mom kept these cards in a box, as people did in those years.

There are many cards from Germany. The buildings are beautiful, with ancient structures, and magnificent monuments in cities and parks. Of course, this was many years before World War II.

From here on, my cards, ranging from comical to picturesque scenes, buildings, waterways, ships, animals, statues, monuments, and the like, organized group of malcontents and terrorists. Southern Bell Report Cites Expansion

Telephone expansion in the South during 1953 continued to reach higher levels of achievement, but the impact of the high costs of providing service remains a major problem, according to the Annual Report of the Southern Bell Telephone Company released in Bay St. Louis today.

More than a quarter-million Southern Bell telephones were added during the year, bringing the total in service past the 4 1/2 million mark. Southern Bell serves Bay St. Louis and 1,013 other exchanges in nine southern states. The report was released here by J. C. Dabney, Manager of the Telephone Company.

Investing in new construction of telephone plant and service improvement at the rate of more than $3,600,000 per week, Southern Bell spent a record $188,540,794 to meet the continuing demand for telephone service during 1953. This was the largest amount ever spent by the company in a year.

The report, made by President F. D. Turner for the Board of Directors, pointed out that this expansion program reflected both the great demand for telephone service and the Company's faith in the economic growth and future of the South.

For service continues strong, the report noted, it is necessary that the company realize adequate earnings to attract on reasonable terms the large sum of investors' capital required for continued expansion of its ability to meet the demand will be seriously hampered.

Southern Bell's progress took more forms during 1953. By installing telephones at the rate of more than five per cent of every working day, the company received a net gain of 26,588 telephones. More than 1 1/2 million orders involving work on the customers' premises were handled. Fifty-four out of every 100 families in Southern Bell territory now have a telephone.

The report also noted that 5/6 Independent Companies joined Southern Bell in serving the South. These companies serve more than 1,200 communities and in 1953 brought their total number of telephones in service to more than one million.

Telephone usage reached high levels as Southern Bell customers made about 28,840,000 local calls per day and an average of seven calls per telephone, highest daily calling rate in the nation. Responding to needs for rapid communications in the South's agricultural areas, Southern Bell in 1953 spent $27,000,000 for new telephone facilities to meet this demand. Telephone service was provided for 80,989 new rural subscribers during the year. In 1945, the Company has spent more than $175,000,000 in rural telephone expansion work.

The technical quality of Southern Bell Service continued to improve during the year. The report said the time an average telephone was free from service interruptions has now been extended to 48 months as compared to 29 months in 1949.

Telephone wages and salaries continued to be the principal operating expense, consuming 49.3 per cent of the Company's expense dollar in 1953. The report disclosed that Southern Bell's 60,891 employees received wages and salaries totaling $206,693,209.

As to wages, the Company's biggest single operating expense was taxes. The 1953 tax bill amounted to more than $157,000,000. This included operating taxes of $82,789,000 levied directly on the Company and Federal, State and local excise taxes totaling $74,284,000. All told, about 31 per cent of the subscriber's monthly bill went for taxes, or about $3.18 per month per telephone.

Celebrates Birthday

About thirty little guests, most of them members of Christ Church Parish School Kindergarten class, were invited.

A deviation in the usual games played added merriment to the party. A springtime theme, with pinning flowers on a stem and fishing in a pond provided fun.

Dinner Party

Captain and Mrs. Ivar Rosenquist entertained at a dinner party Sunday evening at their home on Ruella St.

The party was a celebration of the eleventh wedding anniversary of the couple.

The dining room table was laid with an imported linen embroidered cloth with lace insertions and was enhanced with a stunning floral arrangement of American Beauty Roses.

Dinner guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ray DeRocha; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Benigno; Mr. and Mrs. William Bertucci; Mrs. G. Henitz of New Orleans; Mrs. Mary Hale. Later in the evening other friends dropped in to wish the couple happiness.

Captain Rosenquist, Master of the Ishman S. S. Co., vessel the U.S.S. Steel Fabricator is spending three months at home on vacation. This is the first vacation in three years that the Captain has enjoyed. His ship sails around the world, docking most frequently at far Eastern Ports.

The boys and girls of Waveland School, fifth and sixth grades have formed a new club, called the "Lookies Club." The aim of the group is to become better acquainted with the dictionary and reference books.

The club pledge is "We never guess, we look it up!" The twenty-eight members decided upon navy blue and red as the club's colors.

Officers are: President, Lynne Hall; Vice-president, Patsy Bozeman; Secretary, Pat Vulture; Reporter, Sallie Yarbrough.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Mayfield and children are now residing in Waveland. They have purchased a lot and will build a home there shortly. This column welcomes the Mayfields to Waveland. Mr. Mayfield is a pilot with Delta Air Lines.

During the week-end the Mayfields had as their guests Mrs. Eugene Higley of New Orleans and Mrs. E. S. Burwell and Mrs. Louise Hubbard of Birmingham, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Bozeman and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bozeman had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. E. Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Legendre of New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Langhoff have been spending several days in their Sobral St. home. Visiting them during the week-end were Mrs. Hugh Casteix and daughter, Susan, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Duke.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Mestayer have returned to their home after a visit to New Iberia, La.

"Rob Roy" at Star Sunday, Monday

The full-blooded and exciting story of one of the world's most renowned fighting men is told in terms of action and romance in "Rob Roy," newest in Walt Disney's notable series of live-action films, which is announced at the Star Theatre Sunday and Monday, March 21 and 22.

Photographed in Technicolor and produced on an outstanding scale in Scotland, authentic Rob Roy country, it comes to the Star with high praise from British audiences in London, where it was selected for Queen Elizabeth as her first Royal Command Performance film, and from the critics on both sides of the Atlantic.

Appropriately as the fearless Scottish Rebel who defied a king and the royal armies to save his MacGregor clan from obliteration, is Richard Todd. His memorable portrayal of the title role in Disney's "Story of Robin Hood" and of Charles Brannan in Disney's "Sword and the Rose" have established him as a romantic favorite with audiences everywhere.

Glynis Johns, who was teamed with Todd in "Sword and the Rose" portrays the bonny Helen Mary, the woman Rob Roy MacGregor loved, and who matches him in spirit and valor, though she eventually helps to tame his wild heart to the ways of honorable peace.

Throughout the cast, characterization is consistent and sincere and personality is vividly evoked. Although authenticity is maintained to the utmost detail, any exaggerated dialect

"Glen Miller Story" At Legion Theatre

"Wonderful" is the word for "The Glen Miller Story." Everything about Universal - International's gloriously thrilling Technicolor production of the great band leader's life-story comes off in terms of superb entertainment.

The picture is playing at the Legion Theatre in Gulfport, starting at 4:30 p.m. Saturday and playing through Friday, March 26.

You'll hear praise for a story stamped with honesty and crackling with electric excitement, for performances by stars James Stewart and June Allyson that are infectious with humor and warm affection, and for that magnificent Miller music as alive today through the magic of the movies as it was when Glen recorded it "in person."

"The Glen Miller Story" is essentially a love story, always tender and sometimes a little wild—a love story that maintains an intimate mood while it builds a broad scope through Glen's tough years and good years and the exciting years of World War II that eventually took his life at the peak of his fabulous success.

"The Glen Miller Story" is also the story of the wonderful music that came out of that love, music that enthralled dancing America's millions. Nine of the all-time Miller masterpieces are presented in the picture, played in the style established by the

The Bay Seniors defeated the Pass Christian Sea Scouts 18-4 in their first home game here last Sunday afternoon. Playing their first game as a member of the Hancock County Baseball Association, the Seniors got off to a murdering first inning in which each batter batted twice, all scoring at least once with Bell, Taylor, Tartavouille, Randolph and Adam scoring twice in the opening frame.

Before the battered Sea Scouts could get their third cut fourteen runs had crossed the plate and the Seniors were showing their revenge for a season opening 6-5 defeat last Sunday by the same team.

Billy Taylor held the Sea Scouts to only one hit in the long contest, that being Scott's fifth inning triple to right-center. Taylor showed fine control, never being in trouble, walking 5 and setting 16 Sea Scouts down via the strike out route.

Bobby Ladner and Clayton Adam led the batting parade for the Seniors. Ladner getting two doubles and Adam a single and long triple.

C. Necaise relieved starter Joe Benigno for the Sea Scouts in the first inning and kept the Senior scoring down to only four runs the rest of the game.

The Sea Scouts' first runs came in the fifth inning when with two batters on base Scott slammed a long triple to outfield bringing in two runs. The Scouts' other two runs were unearned. In the high scoring game only six of the twenty-five players hit safely. Bell, Monti and Scott collected one hit and Tartavouille Ladner and Adam collected two hits each.

The Seniors made good use of their eight hits, most of them coming with two or more runners on base.

Biggest blow of the game was Bobby Ladner's two bagger in the first inning with bases loaded. In that inning the Seniors collected only three hits but made good use of seven walks, two hit batters and three errors.

This gives the Bay Seniors 1-1 so far for this season. Both games were with the Pass team.

This Sunday the Seniors will be host to the Kilm Wildcats. The game will begin at 2 p.m. at the ball park by Gilmore's. Pitching for the Seniors will be Charles Tartavouille with a 0-1 record. Larry Ladner will do the hurling for the Wildcats.

The Diocesan Council of Catholic Women of Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Long Beach and Gulfport will sponsor a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Preempt Succor, Mar. 25 in the Ursuline Chapel in State Street, New Orleans.

The pilgrimage will be dedicated to St. Joseph and the intentions of the Holy Father during the Marian Year. One shrine in each diocese all over the world is dedicated to Mary to be visited during the year.

A bus has been chartered and will leave at 10:30 Thursday, March 25 from Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church. Mrs. Alden Mauffray is general chairman for the pilgrimage.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

On March 12, 1954, the Girl Scouts of the United States Inc. celebrated their 42nd anniversary. Mrs. Telhiard was one of the founders of the first American Legion Auxiliary in Gulfport, Bay St. Louis. Four girls are chosen each year to represent the United States at a camp at Adelboden, Switzerland. This is an international gathering. It is considered a high honor to be chosen.

There are over two million Girl Scouts in the United States today. There are the program levels in Girl Scouting: Brownies, aged from 7 to 10 years; intermediates from 10 to 14 and Senior Scouts of High School age. In Live Oak Girl Scout Council are 17 intermediate troops, 24 Brownie troops and three Senior troops, two of which are in the Marine program.

In Live Oak Girl Scout Council there are 680 registered Scouts and 225 adult volunteer leaders. There are 48 sponsoring organizations, backing these troops. The council's jurisdiction covers the following towns and communities: Gulfport, Orange Grove, Handsboro, Mississippi City, Pass Christian, Long Beach and Bay St. Louis.

An office is maintained at the Knights of Pythias Lodge Hall on 26th Ave. in Gulfport. It is through the generosity of the K of P's that this office is made possible.

Live Oak Girl Scout Council operates two day camps each year: one at Camp Loss, Bay St. Louis and one at Camp Bernard, Gulfport. Camp Loss dates for 1954 season are June 2 through June 25, and Camp Bernard dates June 7 through June 18 for intermediates and Seniors, and Brownie session June 21 through July 2. The more cookies sold the more camping for the girls.
